

RH004

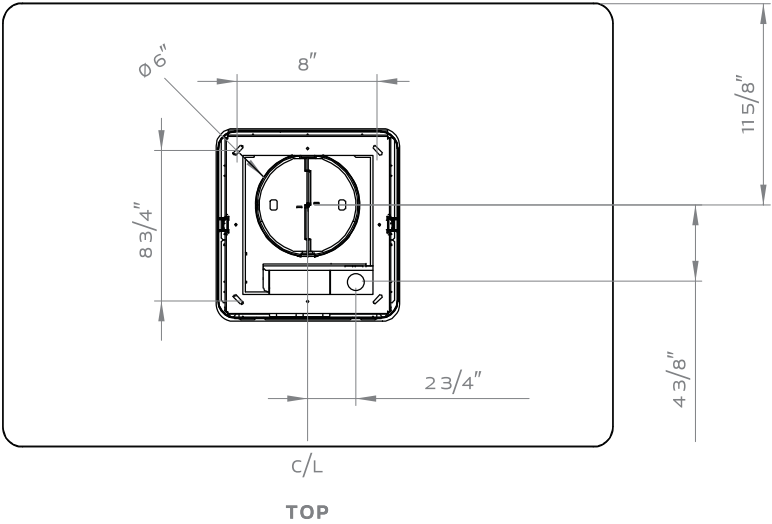

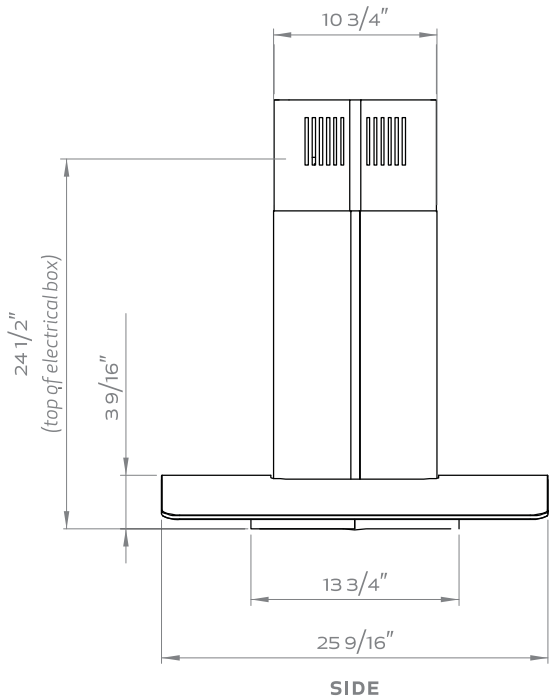

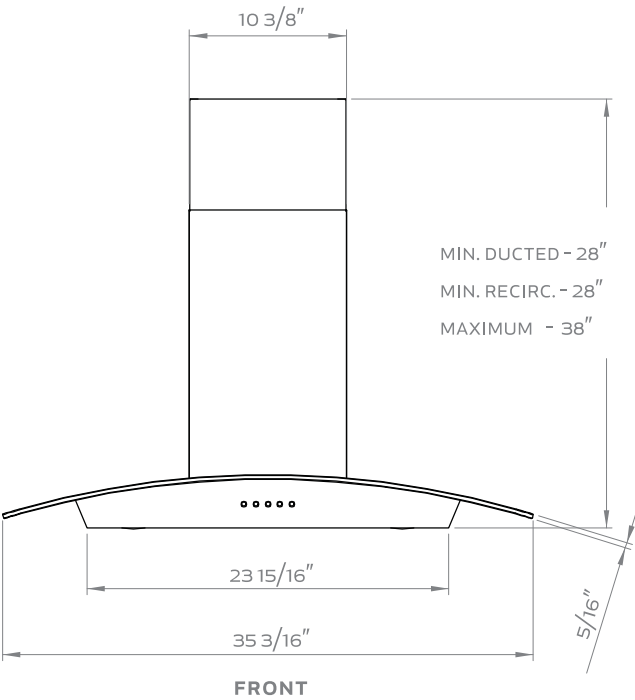

RH004 can be installed in as little as 20 minutes. Designed with our unique 3-three step installation system, RH004 breaks the arduous task of installing the entire range hood into 3 easy steps. We've even added an installation template to help you align your ceiling marks without the guesswork. One look at the classic European design and gentle clear-glass curved canopy will have you sold. Love at first sight? Yes. It's possible.
